

AmeriCorps Field Crew Member

The Utah Conservation Corps (UCC) is an AmeriCorps program dedicated to developing conservation leaders through service and education and improving the quality of public lands through partnership projects.

TERM DATES: May 21 – August 17, 2018 (3-month summer term)
May 21 – November 16, 2018 (6-month summer-fall term)
August 20 – November 16, 2018 (3-month fall term)

LOCATION(S):

- Base out of a UCC field office location – Logan, Cedar City, or Moab, UT
- Project sites on public land within a day's drive of the field office base

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Crew Members spend three or six months working and living outdoors as part of a Utah Conservation Corps crew in service to public lands and the communities that surround them. Crew Members are responsible for being a contributing member of their crew, upholding and abiding by UCC policies & procedures, and conducting themselves in a safe and productive manner. All crew members are trained in safe and proper tool use, project techniques, and outdoor living. Training topics include chainsaw and hand tool use, project techniques, and basic wilderness first aid. Crews complete projects on Utah's public lands related to habitat restoration, invasive species removal, fence construction, trail constructions or forest fire fuels reduction. Weekly project schedules are variable, where crews work 4-10 days in a row and then get off time proportional to the amount of time they have been in the field. Crews spend full-days working outdoors doing physically demanding work.

Crews typically camp during the project week and return to their base field office for off-time. Crews may go home each night when working on local projects. This position is an AmeriCorps term of service that requires a full-time commitment.

Utah Conservation Corps arranges for camping and travel during project time and supplies all tools and safety equipment and uniform tops. Crew Members must provide their own work boots, work pants, and personal camping gear. Crew Members are responsible for their own buying their food and arranging for lodging and transportation during off time.
